RESEARCHERS AND EDUCATORS TO DISCUSS BILINGUALISM

"Bilingualism and its implications for education in Western Canada" will be the theme of a three-day conference sponsored by Collège Universitaire Saint-Jean this weekend.

STEPHEN T. CAREY, Assistant Professor of Psychology at Collège Universitaire, says the objective of the meeting is "to establish a dialogue between the educational administrators and teachers of the French language and culture in Alberta, and researchers at The University of Alberta and universities throughout Canada investigating aspects of French language acquisition and implications of bilingualism and biculturalism.

"It is high time that results of important research on bilingual education be directly communicated to our policy-makers and teachers in an atmosphere that encourages critical evaluation."

Twenty-four participants, including representatives from The University of Alberta and the provincial Department of Education, will speak at the conference. Among the speakers are GUY PLASTRE of Laval University and WALLACE LAMBERT and JOHN MACNAMARA of McGill University. Sessions will be conducted in English and French, with simultaneous translations. KEITH SPICER, Commissioner for Official Languages, Ottawa, will be guest speaker at a banquet Saturday evening.

The conference begins at 9 a.m. Friday, September 14 and continues through Sunday afternoon. It concludes with a round table discussion of implications for Western Canada. The $10 registration fee will include tickets for noon hour buffets on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday; evening performances of Molière's Le Malade Imaginaire by Le Théâtre Français d'Edmonton; and a reception to be given by the French Consul, Friday from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Registration is open to the public. Cheques may be made payable to Collège Universitaire, 8406 91 Street, Edmonton. For further information, telephone 466-2196.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

By FOLIO Staff

The University Board of Governors and its Executive Committee met Friday, September 7, 1973.

BUILDING BUDGET ENDORSED

Members endorsed a $60 million, five-year building budget presented to them by W. D. NEAL, Vice-President (Planning and Development).

If the budget is approved by the provincial government, the University will receive $13,500,000 for 1974-75; $15,400,000 for 1975-76; $12,300,000 for 1976-77; and $10,700,000 for 1977-78 and again for 1978-79.

The building program includes plans for the construction of a new agriculture building, a business administration and commerce building, and a food facility.

Board members agreed not to commit the University's share of the $14.5 million in the 3AU (Three Alberta Universities) Fund, until after the government has responded to the building budget that has been submitted.

UTILITIES BUDGET APPROVED

The Board adopted a five-year capital budget of $16,568,300 for the development of utilities systems at the University. The five-year period will begin with the 1974-75 year, when the University takes over complete responsibility for the planning and construction of the utilities systems. Responsibility formerly was shared with the provincial Department of Public Works.

Broken down, the budget provides $4,534,500 for 1974-75; $2,536,000 for 1975-76; $3,668,800 for 1976-77; $3,366,000 for 1977-78; and $2,463,000 for 1978-79.

Projects covered by the budget include the services tunnel, electrical distribution system, sewers, cooling plant, and power plant.

1972-73 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

It was reported to the Board that operating expenses for 1972-73 totalled $67,730,000.

Of that amount, almost $48,000,000 went to academic faculties and schools, while $1,200,000 was allocated to indirect instructional facilities such as the Boreal Institute for Northern Studies, Computing Services, the Centre for the Study of Mental Retardation, and laboratory animal services. More than $7,000,000 was

APPOINTMENTS

ROGER G. MOTUT has been appointed by the Board of Governors to a three-year term as Chairman of the Department of Romance Languages, effective July 1, 1973. He has been on staff since 1958 and was Acting Chairman of the department in 1972-73. Dr. Motut's academic interests include the teaching of second languages, and French-Canadian literature of Western Canada and the North. In 1972 he won the Prix Champlain for his published research on Maurice Constantin-Weyer, a French author who homesteaded in and wrote about Western Canada. Dr. Motut holds a BA from Laval University, a BEd and an MA from this University, and a PhD from the University of Washington.

CHARLES M. BIDWELL has been named Director of Health Sciences Audiovisual Education, effective August 1, 1973. Prior to his appointment, Dr. Bidwell was an instructional technologist and assistant professor in the Multimedia Self-instructional Study Unit Project at the University of Maryland School of Nursing in Baltimore. He has had considerable experience in health sciences education and in the development of self-instructional learning packages. He holds a BA from McMaster University, a BEd from the Ontario College of Education, University of Toronto, and an MS and a PhD in Instructional Technology from Syracuse University.

required to operate the physical plant. University Library facilities cost $4,951,000; administrative departments, $3,108,000; student services, $790,000; public service departments, $921,000; and miscellaneous expenses, $1,632,000.

The University received $57,178,000 in operating funds from the provincial government. Student fees totalled $8,964,000. An additional $1,833,000 in grants, estates, and transfers from research funds brought the total revenue to $68,018,000, leaving a surplus of $228,000 for the year.

The University also received $4,916,377.46 in gifts between April 1 and June 30, 1973. The federal government contributed $3,699,128; the provincial government, $258,085; associations and organizations, $831,094.96; industry, $35,115; and other persons or groups, $92,954.50.

COMPUTING SERVICES NON-CREDIT COURSES

Computing Services offers non-credit courses about four times a year. The courses are open to all interested persons, who should register in the General Office, room 352 General Services Building. There is a fee of $10 per course ($20 for commercial clients) which must be paid before the beginning of each course. The Use of Terminals classes are free. Please note the prerequisites for each course and contact the General Office, 432-1261, or the Information Coordinator, MS. F. CRUDEN, room 261, General Services Building, 432-1463, for further information.

BEGINNERS APL

APL (A Programming Language) is a commonly used conversational language. It provides a powerful, yet easy to learn, notation and requires no previous computing experience. Date: September 10 - 28, Mondays through Thursdays Time: 4 - 5 p.m. Place: room 327, General Services Building Instructor: Elizabeth Armitage Prerequisites: none Description: Basic concepts and fundamentals of APL with practice terminal sessions Recommended References: APL User's Manual; APL 360, Gilman and Rose.

ADVANCED APL

Date: October 15 - November 2, Mondays through Thursdays Time: 4 - 5 p.m. Place: room 327, General Services Building Instructor: Elizabeth Armitage Prerequisites: "Beginners APL" or some experience in the language Description: Advanced concepts in APL with practice terminal sessions Recommended References: APL User's Manual; APL 360, Gilman and Rose.

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTING AND ELEMENTARY FORTRAN

FORTRAN is a universally used computer language.

Date: September 11 - October 11, Tuesdays and Thursdays Time: 4:30 - 6:30 p.m. Place: room 821, General Services Building Instructor: Mel Perry Prerequisites: None Description: Basic FORTRAN for non-mathematically oriented people Recommended References: FORTRAN IV with WATFOR and WATAV, Cress Dirkson and Graham; MTS Volume 1.

INTERACTIVE FORTRAN AND FORTRAN DEBUGGING

Date: October 30 - November 13, Tuesdays Time: 3 - 5 p.m. Place: room 327, General Services Building Instructor: Vladimir Berka Prerequisites: Good knowledge of FORTRAN Description: Use of Interactive FORTRAN in developing and debugging FORTRAN programs Text: Will be provided.

MTS OVERVIEW

Date: September 18 - October 23, Tuesdays Time: 3 - 5 p.m. Place: room 327, General Services Building Instructor: Vladimir Berka Prerequisites: Basic knowledge of computing Description: Comprehensive course on the use of files, devices, commands, and the editor under the Michigan Terminal System (MTS), the main operating system at Computing Services.

New MTS features such as shared files will discussed in detail. Recommended References: MTS Volume 1.

TEXT EDITING AND FORMATTING

Date: September 26 - November 1, Wednesdays and Thursdays Time: 2 - 3 p.m. Place: room 327, General Services Building Instructor: Frances Cruden Prerequisites: None, except that we recommend that persons unfamiliar with computing take one of the Use of Terminals classes being given on September 19 or 20. Description: Use of the programs *EDIT and *FMT in the text editing and formatting. This course can be a valuable aid to students and members of staff (both academic and non-academic) in using the computer to edit and produce papers, articles, theses, books, and other documents.

Recommended References: Manuscript Production Handbook, MTS Volume 1.

USE OF TERMINALS

(two separate classes)

Dates: Wednesday, September 19; Thursday, September 20 Time: 2 - 3 p.m. Place: room 351, General Services Building Prerequisites: None Description: Use of the IBM 2741 terminal for text and data entry. Introduction to the 2741 keyboard, signon and signoff procedures, the creation of files and other simple MTS commands. More classes on this subject can be scheduled according to demand.

CALCOMP PLOTTING

(This course will be cancelled if less than five registrations are received.)

Date: October 16 - November 6, Tuesdays and Thursdays Time: 3:30 - 5 p.m. Place: room 611, General Services Building Instructor: Peter Buttus Prerequisites: knowledge of FORTRAN Description: Basic Calcomp plotting routines. Students will have some opportunity to use the plotter.

PEOPLE

■ Several members of the Alberta Institute of Pedology (G. M. COEN, W. W. PETTAPIECE, D. J. PLUTH and J. A. ROBERTSON) attended the Canadian Society of Soil Science annual meeting which was held in conjunction with the fourth North American Forest Soils conference at Laval University in August. Professors Coen and Pettapiece presented papers to the Canadian Society of Soil Science technical session. Dr. Robertson completed his term as president of the Society at the annual meeting.

■ C. F. BENTLEY, Professor of Soil Science, was made a fellow of the Canadian Society of Soil Science at the CSSS meetings held in conjunction with the Agricultural Institute of Canada. The award is "in recognition of distinguished service in Soil Science" and Dr. Bentley was one of two recipients this year.

A painting of the old Medical Sciences Building (now the Dentistry-Pharmacy Centre) has been presented to W. C. MAC KENZIE, Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, by representatives of the William S. Merrell Company. The painting, now hanging in the Dean's office in the Clinical Sciences Building, contrasts the old facilities with the new ones that have gone up around University Hospital. It was done by Toronto artist William Biddle.

■ S. M. DAMIRGI, Assistant Professor of Soil Science at the University of Baghdad, has arrived in Edmonton to spend his sabbatical leave in the Department of Soil Science at this University. He will work closely with Professors F. D. COOK and G. R. WEBSTER on their continuing study of "alfalfa sickness."

■ M. W. JACKSON, doctoral candidate and sessional lecturer in the Department of Political Science, served as a discussant on two panels on national science policy at the 9th International Political Science Association meetings in Montreal.

■ E. NYLAND, Visiting Assistant Professor of Physics, has just returned from a trip to Miami and South America. In Miami he attended "Share XLII" and in Lima, Peru, he presented the results of computer studies of the dynamics of deformation of the earth to the assembly of the International Association for Seismology and Physics of the Earth's Interior. These investigations cast light on earthquake prediction problems, of particular interest in Peru. Dr. Nyland also contributed a report to the Symposium on the Seismic Structure of the Moon.

■ CARLO CALDAROLA, Associate Professor of Sociology, presented a paper at the 12th International Conference of Sociology of Religion held in The Hague in August. His trip was sponsored by a Canada Council grant.

■ JOYCE BOORMAN and DOROTHY HARRIS, Assistant Professors of Physical Education, directed the faculty's fifth year of Dance Session, a two-week summer program offering 13 courses. For the first time, three courses could be taken for university credit. A total enrolment of 226 students, 40 of whom were enrolled in credit courses, attended the children's, evening, and concentrated courses. Plans for Dance Session '74 are underway with expectations that the credit program will be expanded.

■ JOSEPH M. KIRMAN, Associate Professor of Elementary Education, has published through the Edmonton Jewish Community Council "An Introduction to the Jewish People," an elementary level teaching kit comprising a filmstrip, tape cassette, and teacher's manual. The kits are available on free loan to all social studies teachers in the province.

■ Professors F. C. ENGELMANN and R. R. GILSDORF, members of the Department of Political Science, each presented a paper at the IXth World Congress of the International Political Science Association which was held in Montreal during August. At the annual meeting of the Canadian Political Science Association preceding the international meeting papers were presented by Professor J. K. MASSON and graduate students S. BROWN and D. GROH. In addition Professors D. CARMICHAEL and J. P. JOHNSTON served as panel members.

■ BRIAN J. SPROULE, Professor and Head, Division of Respiratory Diseases, will, as Past-President of the Canadian Thoracic Society, represent Canada on the Executive Council of the International Union Against Tuberculosis in meetings to be held in Tokyo, Japan later this month.

■ OUSMANE SILLA, Professeur Adjoint à Collège Universitaire Saint-Jean, is directing an interdisciplinary research project on unilingual or bilingual schools for Franco-

Albertans. The Secretary of State is supporting the project with a three-year grant to Collège. Dr. Silla also is continuing his research on the structural analysis of African religions and therapeutic techniques. In this connection he visited the Musée de l'Homme in Paris and the International African Institute in London during the summer. He met several university officials, including CLAUDE LEVI-STRAUSS of the Collège de France, known as the founder of structuralism in anthropology.

■ HARRY WOHLFARTH, Associate Professor of Extension, was represented by three works at the Bertrand Russell Centenary International Art Exhibition in Nottingham, England.

■ ALEXANDER MATEJKO, Associate Professor of Sociology, presented a paper on politics and the working class in east central Europe at the IXth World Congress of the International Political Association, in Montreal. He also gave a paper on the standard of living in Poland at the annual meeting of the American Sociological Association, in New York. Dr. Matejko has recently had his book on egalitarianism versus elitism in east central European social structures accepted for publication by Praeger.

■ HELMUT BRAUSS, Associate Professor of Music, recently completed a concert tour of Europe which comprised three appearances with orchestra, three broadcasts, three chamber music concerts, and 14 piano recitals.

■ L. C. GREEN, University Professor and member of the Department of Political Science, has been invited by the Department of Environment to attend a preparatory conference in Vancouver on September 20 with the government delegation to the Law of the Sea Conference.

■ R. E. MC KOWN, Associate Professor of Political Science, presented a paper at the American Political Science Association meeting held in New Orleans.

NOTICES

THE LIBRARY MOVE

The Undergraduate Library was relocated in Cameron by the last day of August, well ahead of the completion date of September 16.

The next move on the list is the Periodicals Reading Room from Cameron to Rutherford south. Students returning to their studies have reduced the moving crew to a quarter of its former strength and, as a result, the Periodicals transfer will not be as speedy as other moves. To minimize the amount of interference with the workflow it has been necessary to close the Reading Room to the public until the move is completed. It is expected that the Reading Room will be opened in its new location on Monday, September 17.

RHYTHMICAL GYMNASTICS CLINIC

Women students and staff are invited to attend a Rhythmical Gymnastics Clinic which is to be held between 1 and 4 p.m. Saturday, September 29 in the Dance Gymnasium of the Physical Education and Recreation Centre. Participants are asked to bring a hoop.

The clinic will be directed by HEATHER ELLIOTT. A charge will be made of $2 for staff and $1 for students. Further information may be obtained by calling 435-8537.

CHILDREN'S SATURDAY GYM CLASSES

The Saturday Morning Gym Program is to be offered again for the 1973-74 season. Session I will begin October 6 and conclude December 8. Session II will begin January 19 and conclude March 30. Beginners will attend their classes between 9:30 and 10:30 a.m., advanced students between 10:30 a.m. and 12 noon. Classes will meet in Room E-05, east wing, Physical Education and Recreation Centre, the same place as last year.

The cost is $10 per session and pre-registration by September 30 and January 10 would be appreciated. Final registration will be held between 9 and 10 a.m. October 7 and January 19. Cheques should be made payable to "Bears Gymnastic Club." The cheque, with a note of the child's name, age, and gymnastics experience should be sent to FRANCIS TALLY, Department of Physical Education, University of Alberta. More information may be obtained from Professor Tally at 432-5906.

DATA CLEARINGHOUSE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES ESTABLISHED

A $100,000 grant for the establishment of a Data Clearinghouse for the Social Sciences in Canada has been announced by the Canada Council. The clearinghouse will help researchers to locate machine-readable numerical data collected by social scientists across Canada. The grant was made jointly to the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC) and the Social Science Research Council of Canada (SSRCC), co-sponsors of the project.

The clearinghouse will be set up as an independent body in Ottawa, for a three-year experimental period. The board of directors is appointed by AUCC and SSRCC and includes representatives from universities, learned societies, and government bodies. Chairman of the board is JOHN MEISEL of Queen's University. An executive director will be appointed later.

The project is the result of several years' study of the data needs of Canadian social scientists by AUCC and SSRCC and follows the general recommendations of a feasibility study prepared by H. C. CAMPBELL, Chief Librarian of the Toronto public libraries. Copies of the feasibility study are available free of charge from the Social Sciences Research Council of Canada, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa.

TRAVELLING FELLOWSHIPS FOR ADMINISTRATORS

Each year a number of administrative travelling fellowships are awarded by the Association of Commonwealth Universities-Commonwealth Foundation, to members of the administrative staff of the universities which are members of the Association of Commonwealth Universities, or of the inter-university bodies in any country of the Commonwealth.

The purpose of an award is to assist a Fellow to visit university centres in the Commonwealth outside his own country to study matters of professional interest to himself and of importance to his own university.

Preference is given (though awards are not made exclusively) to candidates whose program of travel enjoys in part the financial support of their institution.

Applicants must have at least five years' continuous experience in full-time university administration, and hold at the time of application a post equal or superior in status to that of a university lecturer on the staff of an institution which is a member of the ACU or of a Vice-Chancellor's committee, or other inter-university organization.

Further information may be obtained from: The Secretary General, Association of Commonwealth Universities, 36 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PF, England.

AID TO ARTISTS

The Canada Council offers grants to artists (visual artists, dancers, choreographers, writers, playwrights) in the following two categories: (a) the professional artist who has made a significant contribution to the arts over a number of years; (b) the artist who has finished all basic training. Writers and playwrights must have had at least one work published or performed.

For artists described in (a) above, up to $15,000 will be allowed to cover production costs, living expenses, and travel related to a proposed program requiring at least four months to complete. Application may be made at any time.

For artists described in (b) above, up to $4,000 will be allowed for living expenses, plus travel allowance for the award holder only, and a production cost allowance not exceeding $600, for a period of 4 to 12 months. There are two competitions a year. The closing dates for applications will be October 15, 1973 and April 1, 1974.

There are also short term grants, travel grants, and project grants available to artists in both categories. Details of these and a brochure giving full information on the Aid to Artists program may be obtained from The Canada Council, Awards Service, P.O. Box 1047, Ottawa, Ontario, K1P 5V8.

FACULTY BADMINTON CLUB

The Faculty Badminton Club meets every Wednesday from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the main gymnasium of the Physical Education and Recreation Centre starting Wednesday, September 19.

All faculty members, postdoctoral fellows, and spouses are eligible for membership. Beginners are welcome and instruction will be available.

Fees are $6 per person, which include birds and all or part of the Club Banquet in April. For further information telephone RUTH LYNN HOOPER, Department of Entomology, at 432-3080.

CANADIAN STUDENTS' NAMES SOUGHT

Each November the Canadian Universities Society of Great Britain and the High Commissioner for Canada give a reception for Canadian students newly-arrived in Great Britain. The purpose of the function, held at MacDonald House in London, is to introduce the students to the society, which exists for their welfare and arranges various social and educational events.

The society would like to receive the names and UK addresses of any students who are planning to study there this fall. The information should be directed to: ROBERTA OLIVER, Honorary Secretary, Canadian Universities Society of Great Britain, 9 Southampton Place, London WC1, England.

EXTENSION COURSES

The first in a series on Management of Human Assets, motivation and leadership seminars, is to be held by the Department of Extension September 27 through 29.

R. V. RASMUSSEN, Associate Professor of Business Administration and Commerce, will conduct the seminar using the Gellerman film series "Motivation and Productivity." Dr. Rasmussen will provide lecture material and will guide discussions in such a way as to tie the film ideas into a comprehensive unit of information which can be applied to practical problems.

The fee for the seminar is $95 including materials and luncheons. Further information on this and future seminars may be obtained from the Department of Extension at 432-5067 or 432-5066 during the day, or at 432-3116 after office hours.

WOMEN'S PROGRAMS

A series of discussions of particular interest to women will begin at noon Thursday, September 27, sponsored by the Department of Extension and the Edmonton Public Library. The series will be free of charge, but interested individuals are asked to register with the department at Corbett Hall, 82 Avenue and 112 Street.

There will be 10 informal sessions consisting of a short lecture followed by open discussion. They will be held from noon to 1 p.m. on Thursdays in Music Rooms 1 and 2 in the Edmonton Public Library, 7 Sir Winston Churchill Square.

Topics will include women and discrimination in employment, women and labor unions, problems encountered by Indian and Metis women, and women and the law.

Further information may be obtained from the Department of Extension at 432-5066 or 432-5056 during office hours.

UNCLES AT LARGE

"Uncles at Large" is an organization devoted to helping fatherless boys. This is "Uncles at Large" Week, proclaimed by Mayor IVOR DENT and supported by Honorary Uncle J. W. GRANT MAC EWAN, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta. The organization is always looking for men who would be willing to spend some time with a "nephew" engaging in the various sporting and leisure time activities that would normally be followed by father and son.

Anyone interested in volunteering their services should write to "Uncles at Large," 9919 106 Street, Edmonton, T5K 1E2.

EDMONTON SYMPHONY SUBSCRIPTIONS

Season subscriptions for the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra are now on sale in a choice of three concert groups: (a) 11 Saturday evening concerts; (b) 11 Sunday afternoon concerts at reduced matinee prices; and (c) 7 select Sunday afternoon concerts. Prices remain the same as for the last two years. Everyone subscribing before September 20 will receive an illustrated history of the Symphony Orchestra free of charge and the chance to win a trip for two to Europe, courtesy of Air Canada.

The season will begin under the baton of the new resident conductor, PIERRE HETU, September 29 and 30 in a concert featuring pianist GARY GRAFFMAN playing Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1.

Full-time students and senior citizens may purchase subscriptions in Sections B, C, and D in all three main series concert groupings for half price.

Seats may be reserved 24 hours a day by telephoning 433-2020.
